KLAUS SEEGER, CPHI(C)

Klaus Seeger received his CPHI(C) in 1973 joining the Huron County Health Unit. Then in 2000 he joined Oxford County Board of Health.

Klaus retired in 2007 and established Seeger & Associates Consulting. In 2008, Klaus was contracted to develop the draft of the CIPHI environmental public health competencies. He was a member of the Centenary Planning Committee, and produced and edited the CIPHI Centenary Calendar. He remains active with CIPHI and the EHFC

Klaus became the first editor of the Ontario Branch News in 1979, until 1989. In 1984, he was elected to the Ontario Branch Executive and served as President from 1989-1993. He was a member of the Board of Certification for several years. In 1990, Klaus joined the Board of Trustees of the Environmental Health Foundation of Canada (EHFC). He was Vice-Chair in 1991, and Chair in 1993 for several years. In 1998, the Foundation became a Founding Member of the Canadian Partnership for Consumer Food Safety Education which included major participation in the FightBac campaign.

Klaus has been a trustee of the EHFC Board participating in many projects over the last 30 years. This includes the development & promotion of the TempSafe program; the groundwater and sewage video; plus, the awards that are currently available.

In 1999, Klaus received the Alex Cross Award, Life Membership in 2005, and in 2008, the Distinguished Service Award for his contribution to public health in Ontario from the Association of Local Public Health agencies.

"I believe strongly in the objectives of the Foundation, the charitable division of CIPHI. The projects and products available from the Foundation are excellent additions to the toolbox, enhancing the work of the environmental public health profession. "
